

DAVID H ROHS YOUTH FUND SCHOLARSHIP
GUIDELINES AND APPLICATION FORM
First United Methodist Church, Kalamazoo MI

Updated January 4, 2022

1. Offer scholarships ($500-$1000) to interested youth/young adults who are active participants at FUMC and plan to attend college, university, or seminary in the U.S. for any course of study towards an undergraduate/seminary/graduate/professional studies degree.
2. If the institution is United Methodist-related, the applicant may be eligible to apply to the United Methodist Higher Education Foundation “Quadruple Dollars for Scholars” funds. These funds of up to $3000 per student are available to qualified applicants who have received $1000 scholarship support from a local congregation.
3. Rohs Scholarship money may be used for tuition and fees, room and board, books, transportation and personal expenses associated with the cost of education.
4. One of the pastors and two Trustees will be involved in the application review process, with final approval by the FUMC Board of Trustees. The Rohs Scholarship recipients will be notified by May 1, 2022.
5. Scholarships can be renewed once; however, a new application is required.

The application period begins January 1, 2022, with the deadline for submission of March 31, 2022.
